

Objective of the Conference

The biennial NATCOSEB is the flagship conference of ISSST. It aims to provide a platform to scientists, technologists, and researchers for exchanging their ideas and advancement through scientific discourses. Participants are expected to communicate among themselves on their studies on micelle, microemulsion, emulsion, gel, supramolecular assemblies, and various other aspects of surface chemistry. As the cutting edge research today has become more of a group and collaborative work rather than individual effort, the ISSST hopes that NATCOSEB will help the researchers to bond among themselves for the betterment of their own research and also for the benefit of the society at large.

Indian Society for Surface Science & Technology

The society was established in 1983 with the aim to cultivate and disseminate the knowledge of surface science among researchers, students, teachers and general public. Surface science being a ubiquitous one, its importance cannot be overemphasized. The industry – academia collaboration is one of its stated goals because of the importance of surface science in general public life. It organizes international, national and local seminars throughout the year. It has more than 600 members from India and abroad. The society publishes a peer reviewed international research journal, Journal of Surface Science and Technology as well as a Newsletter. For details of the activities of ISSST, please visit website: www.issstindian.org

Topics of the Conference

- Soft Matter, Biocolloids and Biomimetic Systems
- Surface Science in Life, Energy & Environment
- Interfacial Phenomena, Micelles, Emulsions and Microemulsions, Membranes and Bilayers
- Nano-Materials and Nanotechnology
- Polymers and Biopolymers
- Supramolecular Assemblies, Organic-Inorganic Hybrid Materials, Gels

Amity University Kolkata

Amity University is a multi-campus (non-profit) research intensive private university in India founded by Dr. Ashok K. Chauhan. Amity University Kolkata (AUK) is yet another landmark project by Amity to revolutionize the Indian Higher Education sector by providing globally benchmarked, research oriented education based in the Newtown-Rajarhat area of Kolkata. The vision of Amity is building the nation and the society through providing total, integrated and trans-cultural quality education, and to be the global front runner in value education, and nurturing talent in which modernity blends with tradition. Its mission is to provide education at all levels in all disciplines of modern times and, in the futuristic as well as emerging frontier areas of knowledge, learning and research.

Department of Chemistry

The Department of Chemistry of Amity University, Kolkata strives for an ideal balance between knowledge creation and knowledge dissemination in the field of chemical sciences, with a focus on student training and education. The department started functioning from 2015, and is dedicated to providing a high quality chemistry education for the students at both undergraduate and post-graduate levels. A group of highly qualified and dedicated faculty members are working in various cutting-edge research problems of both fundamental and applied chemistry through active collaboration with other reputed academic institutes, and industries. From 2019, the department has started offering Ph.D. programs for bright and motivated students.

How to Reach Amity University, Kolkata

Distance from Kolkata Airport to Amity University Kolkata is only 12 KM. Prepaid taxi can be hired at Airport terminals. If you are coming from any other parts of Kolkata, catch bus towards Eco Space. Get down at Eco Space and take Autorickshaw to Amity University (only 5 minutes).
